Logo 'A piece of Germany in Vietnam'
Terms and Conditions of Use

The “A Piece of Germany in Vietnam” campaign of the Consulate General of the Federal Republic of Germany in Ho Chi Minh City (CG) aims to generate greater visibility to the connections between Germany and Vietnam in the areas of economics, education, culture, science, political cooperation, development cooperation and civil society and to create a strong common branding for German engagement in Vietnam. The general public should see the logo as a reliable mark of a high-quality contribution of German origin in the advertised matter.

These Terms and Conditions of Use (TCU) govern usage of the logo “A Piece of Germany in Vietnam” of the CG.

With the application for participation in the campaign in the form of a signed copy of this document the TCU are accepted by the participant.

1. Subject matter of the agreement
   (1) The logo “A piece of Germany in Vietnam” (the Logo) consists of the slogan “A piece of Germany” in a German; English and/or Vietnamese language version and three puzzle-shaped pieces that form a triangle open to the right.
   (2) The Federal Republic of Germany as represented by the CG is the author and accordingly owner of the user rights to this logo.

2. User rights
   (1) The CG grants the applicant a non-transferable, free-of-charge user right to the signatory to this agreement (the User)
   (2) The participant commits to using the Logo in connection with a clear reference to Germany.
   (3) The CG will transmit an electronic file containing the Logo electronically to the participant after receiving a signed copy of this TCU.
   (4) The participant commits to use or reproduce only the original version of the logo. No addition to or alteration of the Logo in any way is permitted.
   (5) The user commits to inform the CG about any reproduction of the logo by sending a copy or image of the branded products/documents via email to wi-100@hoch.diplo.de.
   (6) The following measures or forms of use are generally permitted:
      a. Print out the logo in poster size / use as a poster.
      b. Usage of the logo for flyers, brochures and other documents for giveaways, packaging, etc.
      c. Usage of the logo in electronic media (e.g. own homepage, social media channels).
   (7) Usage for content that is unrelated to the campaigns aims or is immoral, abusive or contrary to local laws in any way is prohibited, as is disclosure/sharing of the electronic file containing the Logo to third parties not authorized by the CG.
   (8) The CG reserves the right to withdraw the user right from the participant if it violates the prohibition of use mentioned under 2.(7).
   (9) The CG reserves the right to control the proper usage of the logo by the participant.

4. Warranty and liability
   (1) The participant releases the CG from all third-party claims that arise in connection with the usage of the logo, provided that the CG is not at least predominantly responsible for the claims.
(2) The CG does not guarantee that the usage of the logo does not infringe the rights of third parties. However, it declares that it is not aware of such rights.

5. Contract duration and termination
(1) The duration of use depends on the duration of the CG campaign. At the end of the campaign, the right of use also ends. Any further use must be agreed with the CG on a case-by-case basis. Use-by periods for branded goods with a logo (e.g. giveaways, brochures) are granted. The user will be informed of the relevant deadlines ahead of time.
(2) Both parties are granted an ordinary and an extraordinary right of termination of this TCU.

6. General provisions
(1) In the event of a change to these general terms and conditions, the GK will inform the participant of the change in writing. If the changes are not objected to within a period of four weeks, the changes are considered accepted by the participant.
(2) Should any provision be ineffective, the effectiveness of the remaining provisions is not affected.
(3) Titles and headings do not comprise part of this agreement.
(4) This agreement is governed by local Law.
